

FINAL PROJECT MANAGEMENT MEETING AND CONFERENCE IN MADRID

We are thrilled to announce the successful conclusion of the final Transnational Project Management Meeting for the Erasmus+ CSR4T project, held in Madrid, Spain. This event, organized alongside the Final Project Conference by our esteemed partners at IMPULSA IGUALDAD, marks a significant milestone in promoting sustainable tourism through Corporate Social Responsibility.

Our work emphasizes the diverse landscape of CSR adoption across Europe, fostering a deeper understanding and practical application of CSR principles within the tourism sector. We aspire to create a more uniform and sustainable business environment across the continent.

The CSR4T project team remains committed to driving positive change in the tourism industry, promoting a future where sustainability and profitability go hand in hand. Together, we can create lasting benefits for businesses, communities, and the planet.

PARTNERSHIP

MULTIPLIER EVENTS

All partners organized Multiplier Events to present the project results, ensuring dissemination and sustainability. Each event spotlighted the transformative outcomes of the CSR4T project.

Attendees engaged in immersive project presentations and hands-on activities, fostering collaboration and learning.

Key highlights included:

- 1 CSR Design Thinking for Competence Framework of Tourism CSR Experts
- 2 E-Learning Toolkit Training Competences
- 3 Policy Recommendations

Representatives from targeted sectors, including experts in accessible tourism and vocational education and training (VET) trainers, enriched the discussions with diverse perspectives.

All project results are available on CSR4T website.

Thank you for your continued support as we work towards a more sustainable and responsible tourism industry!
